

Publication of the UCC RAC report is not due until mid-2025. UCC regulations will not become effective until later in 2025 after the report is received.

Regarding accessibility provisions, the Commonwealth Court found the process to adopt them to be unconstitutional. As such, the Department of Labor & Industry does not have a mechanism in place to review or adopt newer accessibility provisions. That needs to be a legislative fix as the process was part of the Pennsylvania Construction Code Act, and not Departmental regulations.